

We strongly oppose any changes in the current regulations allowing various companies to own large numbers of TV and radio stations. we believe the present regulations are the best we have and should stay that way.